Certified Professional Secretary® (CPS®) Review Course in Management : ROCE 2103

Course Length: 25 hours

CEUs Awarded: 2.5 CEUs

Endorsements:

The State of Tennessee gives clerical/secretarial or clerical/management staff a two-step salary increase for successful completion of the CPS examination. State colleges and universities give a 9% salary increase to their clerical/secretarial or clerical/management non-exempt staff. The American Council on Education (ACE) has also recommended that college credit be given for completion of CPS examinations.

Overview:

If you're looking for a way to differentiate your resume from other administrative professionals, consider becoming a Certified Professional Secretary (CPS). Offered by the International Association of Administrative Professionals, the CPS rating is verifiable proof that your skills are up-to-date and that you are capable of handling a wide range of duties. This course, the third in a three-part series, will assist you in reviewing the basic skills and key topics necessary to pass the Management part of the CPS exam. This course will focus on different functions of management, including decision-making techniques, production, time and marketing management, and human resource management. It will also address laws pertaining to employment and discrimination, and cover various accounting principles. This course focuses on these key topics that test takers must know in order to pass the exam.

Target Audience:

Administrative professionals seeking to advance their career and earn higher salaries and current CPS certification holders that need to recertify to keep their professional certification status.

Career Outlook and Benefits:

According to the US Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, employment of secretaries and administrative assistants is expected to increase by 11 percent between 2008 and 2018. Job opportunities should be best for applicants with extensive knowledge of computer software applications, with experience as a secretary or administrative assistant, or with advanced communication and computer skills.

In May 2009, the median annual wage of executive secretaries and administrative assistants was $44,010. The top ten states with the most active CPS holders include: Tennessee, Texas, California, Illinois, Florida, Missouri, Ohio, Michigan, Georgia and Virginia. CPS certification is nationally recognized and is a highly sought qualification by executives, organizations, universities and state governments. Check with your employer for salary treatment policies regarding CPS certification.
